

proud to call them fellow Oklahomans in the trailblazing that they have done.

Thanks for your leadership.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from North Carolina.

Mr. BURR. Mr. President, we are all representative of heroes and idols and, clearly, my colleague from Oklahoma appoints several out from his home State.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that I complete my remarks before we go to the vote this afternoon.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

NOMINATION OF MIGUEL A. CARDONA

Mr. BURR. Mr. President, I rise today to support the nomination of Miguel Cardona to be the next Secretary of Education. He has the background, qualifications, and the temperament to serve in this position. Dr. Cardona has a meteoric rise from a classroom teacher to a school principal, to a commissioner of education for the State of Connecticut.

I am glad the President has nominated him to lead the Education Department in such a challenging time for our Nation's schools.

COVID-19 related school closures have led to significant learning losses, with millions of children stuck at home, trying to learn. Parents are at their wits' end because many of the adults running public schools across our country are failing to actually follow the science. We should be seriously talking about reopening schools as quickly as possible. That is what the science tells us, and that is what students need.

Dr. Cardona testified before the Senate HELP Committee. He stressed the need for students to get back to school, and I am glad that is now, finally, a bipartisan mission.

At the same time, each school district, college, university, State and local community faces different circumstances in dealing with this pandemic. Trying to treat them as a monolith instead of providing flexible advice for States and localities to use if applicable and useful would be a mistake.

Dr. Cardona said he understands that one-size-fits-all mandates from Washington won't work. Dr. Cardona also agreed to be responsive to our oversight requests and to keep us updated on his plans and Department action. We won't agree on everything, but we should be able to find places where we can agree and we can move forward.

I support the nomination of Dr. Cardona and look forward to working with him, and I encourage my colleagues to support his nomination as well.

SECURITY

Mr. President, on a personal note, it is time to take the fences down around this Capitol. To leave them up—it is not about security. It is about an attempt to say: We are really, really important. We work here.

Let me say what I think most of my colleagues believe. We aren't. We are like everyone whom we represent and whom Lincoln referred to as common folks.

At one time, this was a shining city on a hill, and today we have made it into a bunker on the Hill. The message that sends globally, the message that it sends domestically, is wrong. It is time for us to take these 4,000 national guardsmen and let them go see their families versus for 24 hours a day to patrol when we don't even provide them a cafeteria that is open at night. They eat out of vending machines or they bring what they eat.

We thank all of these individuals for the safety they have provided us after a horrendous January 6 event. Now it is past time for us to open up this campus and to allow DC, the District of Columbia, to fully open up to the tourism that they thrive off of.

I thank the President for his indulgence.

I yield the floor.
